

COLLEGE OF HEALTH PROFESSIONS MISSION, VISION, VALUES

College of Health Professions

Following the mission of the Chamberlain University, "To educate, empower and embolden diverse healthcare professionals who advance the health of people, families, communities and nations," the College of Health Professions strives to build a culture of health, equipping extraordinary health professionals with the values, behaviors and knowledge required to succeed and drive healthcare forward.

College of Health Professions Mission

To educate and empower diverse health professionals to advance healthcare and health equity for all people.

Master of Physician Assistant Studies (MPAS) Degree Program Mission

To educate and empower competent, compassionate, and culturally sensitive physician assistant professionals who advance the health of people, families, communities and nations.

MPAS Degree Program Vision

By living Chamberlain Care, we graduate extraordinary physician assistant professionals who transform the health of people worldwide.

Master of Public Health (MPH) Degree Program Mission

The mission of the Chamberlain MPH degree program is to educate public health students as leaders and change agents who advance scholarship, service and practice in promoting healthy, sustainable communities – locally, nationally and globally.

This mission is accomplished through the delivery of a competency-focused curriculum used to educate practitioners to collaborate with partners and communities to promote the health of the public at local, national, and global levels through the integration of education, service and scholarship activities.

MPH Degree Program Vision

To promote healthy, sustainable communities locally, nationally and globally.

MPH Degree Program Values

We believe that graduates with a Master of Public Health (MPH) degree will encompass the values of compassion, social justice, cultural humility with global perspective and the skills and passion for improving the common good of society and communities served.

Master of Social Work (MSW) Degree Program Mission

The mission of the social work degree program is to inspire, educate and empower practitioners and scholars to become agents of social change: to advance the well-being of children, families, communities and the oppressed.

The College of Health Professions advances its mission by centering the students' entire academic experience on Chamberlain Care[®] as its fundamental purpose. Through the paradigm of academic compassion, inspiration, scholarship, innovative technology, esteemed faculty and a rigorous culturally responsive curriculum, the program is designed to prepare graduates to be leaders in their communities and abroad.

MSW Degree Program Vision

To be an educational oasis where social work students enter to learn and leave motivated to serve.
