

COMM-COMMUNICATION (COMM)

COMM-277N: Interpersonal Communication

Contact Hours: Lecture - 48, Lab - 0, Clinical - 0

Semester Hours: Theory 3

This course explores ways in which people interact verbally and non-verbally and teaches basic principles of interpersonal communication including perception, self-concept, persuasive communication, nonverbal communication, semantics, roles and norms and communication barriers. Activities include participating in groups, pairs and interactive communication situations.

Prerequisite: ENGL-118N