

STUDENT COMMONS

The Student Commons is the perfect place for students to rest, study or socialize and network with classmates before, after and between classes. The Commons is equipped with wireless internet access, perfect for accessing online coursework, conducting research or just taking a break. Most Commons are equipped with USB ports for charging and improved connectivity and vending machines for when students need to recharge.