

PROGRAM PARTICIPATION - MPAS

Continued participation in the activities of the MPAS program will not be affected by any injury or illness that occurs while enrolled provided the student continues to meet all Technical Standards, with or without accommodations, fulfills all defined requirements for program progression and is not directly infectious by way of routine contact.