

PROFESSIONALISM - MPAS

The MPAS student should show respect to faculty, preceptors, patients and peers by:

1. Demonstrating professional behavior at all times in the classroom, campus or clinical settings.
2. Arriving promptly, making every attempt not to disturb others in the classroom.
3. Cell phones/pagers should be turned off and not used during classroom or clinical rotation times.
4. Observing all policies and procedures of the Student Handbook.
5. Seeking and following supervisory input in the care of all patients.